

K-LOVE is an important part of my life and I have been contributing to this ministry for the past couple of years. It is important to allow a listener supported station, no matter how small, to have regulations that are only put in place by the entity that designs it. The mission of this station would be greatly compromised if outside forces are allowed to regulate it.